

2017 | 18

INTERNATIONAL MASTER'S PROGRAMMES

120 ECTS Credits
2 years full-time study

ARCHITECTURE, DESIGN & FINE ARTS

- Advanced Product Design
- Architecture and Urban Design
- Fine Arts
- Interaction Design
- Transportation Design

BUSINESS & ECONOMICS

- Accounting
- Business Development and Internationalisation
- Economics
- Finance
- Management
- Marketing

HEALTH & MEDICINE

- Public Health (1 and 2 year programmes)
- Public Health with a specialization in Health Economics

SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY & ENGINEERING

- Chemistry
- Computational Science and Engineering

- Computing Science
- Ecology
- Geocology
- Molecular Biology
- Physics
- Plant and Forest Biotechnology
- Robotics and Control

SOCIAL SCIENCE & HUMANITIES

- Cognitive Science
- Crisis Management and Peacebuilding
- Digital Fabrication and Innovation
- Environmental Archaeology
- Human-Computer Interaction and Social Media
- Human Geography with a specialization in Geographical Information Systems (GIS) (1 year degree)
- IT Management (1 year)
- Law and Society (online learning)
- Law, Gender and Society (online learning)
- Political Science
- Population Studies (1 year degree)
- Scandinavian Studies (1 year, instruction language: Swedish)

- Spatial Planning and Development
- Tourism

UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMMES

- Industrial Design Intensive - 60 ECTS (1 year course)
- International Business - 240 ECTS
- Life Science - 180 ECTS
- Life Science, Chemistry - 180 ECTS
- Life Science, Molecular Biology - 180 ECTS

ECTS is the European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System. 60 credits measure the workload of a full-time student during one academic year (two terms of study covering 40 weeks).

Application deadline
16 January

Final day to submit online applications for studies starting in the autumn term (28 August 2017).

UMEÅ UNIVERSITY
SWEDEN

QUICK FACTS

Founded in 1965

Ranked among the world's elite among young universities

Over

30,000

enrolled students

(including 2,000 international)

15:1

student-to-teacher ratio

Campus Umeå has 15 lunch restaurants and is the same size as 34 football pitches

(234,324 m²)

1st

in Europe for international student satisfaction

Located in northern Sweden's largest city and cultural centre.

IMPORTANT APPLICATION DATES

TODAY:

Find your degree programme or course

16 JANUARY:

Deadline to apply via the national admissions website

1 FEBRUARY:

Deadline to submit all supporting documents

1 FEBRUARY:

Final day for non-EU/EEA citizens to pay the SEK 900 application fee

15 MARCH:

Umeå University Scholarships application deadline

24 MARCH:

Admission results are published

12 APRIL:

Last date to reply to your offer

15 JUNE:

Non-EU/EEA citizens must pay the first tuition fee installment and apply for a residence permit at the Swedish Migration Board

28 AUGUST:

Autumn 2017 term begins

Please note: Dates are subject to change.

UMEÅ UNIVERSITY
SWEDEN